Dear Friend(s),

As I listened to the radio recently, the speaker made a statement so profound I couldn't get it out of my head. It was, "I'm nearer the end than the beginning." Marguerite and I began to discuss that statement. We both are nearer the end than the beginning. Marguerite trusted Christ 70 years ago at the age of 11 and has pursued walking with Him all these years. I trusted Christ 59 years ago and purposed to follow Him. It caused us to look back and evaluate if we had invested those years wisely. Have those years had eternal significance? Have they counted for God's kingdom? What about the years that are left? How will we invest them before we see Him face to face?

As I evaluated my 59 years as a believer, my emphasis was on serving God. God opened doors to pastor churches in California, Washington, and Nebraska. He opened doors to teach at Seattle Bible Institute, Calvary Bible College, and the International Ministerial Institute. He opened doors to serve in missions at Child Evangelism Fellowship and to work with 38 missions and Christian organizations. My most recent ministry has been with ICBC and Biblical Restoration Ministries. We praise God for all the wonderful people we served with and how they ministered to us and our children. We have such good memories from each ministry. We would not change a thing.

Before I look ahead I want to evaluate what I learned from the past. My emphasis was on ministry first and being busy in service. I can't change that, but there has been a gradual change of emphasis. I see now that pursuing God should be first and that ministry should flow from that. Let me paraphrase Hosea 6:3, "Oh, that I may know the Lord. I want to press on to know Him. He will respond to me as surely as the arrival of dawn or the coming of rains in early Spring". This is my goal for the rest of my life - to know Him first and continue to serve Him.

Marguerite and I want to express gratefulness to all of you for ministering to us and for the love you have given to us. Your prayers and gifts are allowing us to continue to serve Him. Bless you.
